CHAMPAGNES & SPARKLING WINES

Champagnes

750 ml

Moët & Chandon n.v.

R1100

The classic bubbly that everyone aspires to, but sadly, most of us can only afford to stand and stare, as it sits on the shelf waiting for the big occasion when someone else gets to celebrate.

Methode Cap Classique (MCC)

Boschendal Brut NV 125 ml glass or 750 ml bottle

R65 R295

Boschendal Brut Rosé NV 750 ml bottle

R65 R295

We've walked a long road together...from 1983 when I bought a magnum of Boschendal MCC to celebrate the birth of our first born. We opened it in 2005. It hadn't travelled well – poor thing but did bring back happy memories. This Christmas past we tried a fresh magnum and fell in love again with this magnificent bubbly...and here it is for all to enjoy. Ad multos annos!

Pierre Jourdan Brut

375 ml / 750 ml

R155 R305

The lime characteristics of the Chardonnay predominate but are well supported by the Pinot Noir. This MCC is crisp, stimulating and rewarding on the palate. It is produced by Haute Cabrière who launched the very first chardonnay/pinot blended MCC.

See if you can find the quieter sister on the list.

Villiera Tradition Brut

375 ml / 750 ml

R205 R325

If you'd like to be different, then this is the one for you. "Made with solar in most stages of production." Presumably this starts in the vineyard in about September of each year? As with any bubbly, do take care as they have a habit of sneaking up on one...

Graham Beck Brut Rosé

R375

Flirtatious and fun. This wine has a beautiful salmon-pink colour with strawberry-fruit flavours. A favourite for special those occasions; to be remembered and cherished between two people.

Stenberg 1682

R395

The Brut 1682 yields a consistent flavour of fresh, Granny Smith apples with overtones of freshly baked biscuits rounded by a creamy, yet fresh mouth feel. Made exclusively from chardonnay, it can, if taken in excess, bring on Joanna Lumley behavioural patterns, but remains, always, absolutely fabulous.

Sparkling & Non-Alcoholic Wines

Robertson Sparkling Sweet or Brut – Rose or White

R165

The classic bubbly that is produced at every family event, especially Christenings. Drunk, in vast amounts, when given even the faintest hint of anything mildly worth turning into a celebration.

Robertson Sparkling White Non-Alcoholic

R145

This semi-sweet, alcohol-free sparkling grape juice is full of delicate fruit and bubbles; and without the headache.

In the little moment that remains to us between crisis and catastrophe, we may as well drink a glass of champagne!

White Wines

White Blends

750 ml

Robertson Beaukett

R45

R120

Full of sweet ripe grapes, from the Robertson Valley. If you like candy floss this is for you.

Saxenburg Granite White Blend

R45

R130

Seldom have I enjoyed a wine which is so aptly named. Truly a crisp granite blend which is deliciously crisp and rewarding to drink, with a wonderful after taste that tingles the tongue and tempts a return to the cup. Surely the best value wine on this list.

Villiera Down to Earth (v)

R55

R160

A mix of sauvignon blanc and semillon. It is really honest, consistent, reliable and affordable. Down to earth, just like the two Regulars who helped me with the tasting. After a good few too many tastes, we all approved! Now its down to you,

Buitenverwachting - Buiten Blanc

R60

R165

The perennial favourite; a classic Cape Town white wine. Made on our doorstep, from grapes sourced throughout the Western Cape. Best consumed on the lawn at Buitenverwachting, or Barristers if closer to home.

Reyneke Organic (v)

R195

A blend of organically grown and produced sauvignon blanc and semillon. Especially for those who want an organic wine from one of the pioneers in the field.

Its not very often you see two vegan wines on the list!

“Let your boat of life be light, packed with only what you need – a homely home and simple pleasures, one or two friends, worth the name,
someone to love and someone to love you,
a cat, a dog, and a pipe or two,
enough to eat and enough to wear,
and a little more than enough to drink.
for thirst is a dangerous thing.”

Jerome K. Jerome

“It was my Uncle George who discovered that alcohol was a food well in advance of modern medical thought.”

A glass of wine in hand, thinking of what has passed and dreaming of what is to come.

Robertson Sauvignon Blanc

R45

R130

Our House Wine, which is chosen to be consumed by the glass with special friends, who are able to listen to the same stories day in and day out. Useful when you need to review a dreary day's work.

Porcupine Ridge Sauvignon Blanc

R135

From Boekenhoutdkloof. This wine will bring back memories of finding porcupine quills in the veldt. There's probably one still stuck in your sock draw or some other place where you keep special memories.

Bon Courage Gooseberry Bush

R55

R155

A gentle sauvignon blanc that pleases the palate, without impairing one's hearing, or the dexterity of the tongue.

Diemersdal Sauvignon Blanc

R65

R180

With literally hundreds of sauvignon blancs to choose from, Diemersdal is a firm favourite in Newlands. We recently visited the farm with a group of friends and what a treat that was! Diemersdal keeps well, sells well, drinks well and after a glass all is well. Oh well!

First Sighting Sauvignon Blanc

R65

R180

The day I visited Elim, it was blustery, with skies full of heavy cloud and patches of bright sun. I'm sure the wind always blows in Elim. It makes one wonder what oceans it has passed over on its way to the southern tip of Africa and how many ancient mariners it has blown off course. You are in a safe harbour now.

Sophie Te'Blanche

R70

R185

Dear old Sophie has returned after a well deserve break. Refreshed after lock-down and as popular as ever now and then. A great wine that delivers great value...enjoy!

De Grendel Sauvignon Blanc

R75

R215

De Grendel is one of my all-time favourite estates and having become particularly well acquainted with their wonderful rosé, I wanted to give the sauvignon blanc a chance as well. When you peer down at Cape Town from the Tygerberg, oh what a wonderful sight.

Lomond

R225

At 34°34' south you can taste the freshness from the south Atlantic in every sip!
Goes well with our fresh hake and chips.

Ataraxia Sauvignon Blanc

R285

Greek for "a serene state of mind, free from worry and preoccupation". I get nervous trying to pronounce ataraxia, but then again, it's normally only when I want to order the second bottle.

"It is no coincidence that, on all four sides, in all four corners, the borders of the Roman Empire stopped where wine could no longer be made."

Robertson Chenin

R40

R120

It is spelt with a 'C' but pronounced with a 'Shh'. Perhaps it has to do with the second glass?

Saxenburg Guinea Fowl

R55

R150

We have guinea fowl in our garden and each spring they wonder around on the lawn with a clutch of keets. Try saying that after a glass of the old speckled hen!

KWV Chenin

R155

"A rich opulent nose with flavours of stone fruit, quince, spice and lime, enhanced with a subtle, perfumed lift. The flush of flavours is like the iridescent colours of a train-rattling peacock".
Tastes just like a Chenin to me.

Kleine Zalze Chenin Cellar Selection

R165

A mild and simple wine, so easy to drink; after a long day, when you seem to have used up your allotted allocation of decisions and can't decide what to drink today, go with Kleine Zalze. It never disappoints.

Lanzerac Chenin

R65

R175

Founded in 1693, it took me 48 years to be able to afford a meal at this fine Estate. It was well worth the wait. As I don't have another 48 years, I thought I should list the Lanzerac chenin so that I can enjoy Lanzerac on a more or less regular basis.

Marras Piekenierskloof

Far too good to buy just a glass

R195

As South African as it gets... red vellies, Mrs Ball's, Wilson's Toffees, Ouma Rusks and All Gold captured in a drop of sunlight.

'Marras' Lamprecht says this of the Piekenierskloof area; "...a grape (if it could talk) would tell you that this is the spot that produces tough vines and top-class wines." He is correct!

It really is too good to just have a glass and much more fun to share with a good friend.

Fat Bastard Chenin Blanc

R205

Your glass is always half full when the Fat Bastard is at your elbow, but beware, half empty when the Fat One is sitting at your table. Those that drink quickly, normally pay slowly. Unsurprisingly this is a full bodied, robust, chenin, at its tumultuous best. Sumptuous. Rich. Real.

Waterford Pecan Stream

R220

Soft on the pallet but let me not interrupt... please do sip on....

"Eat good dinners and drink good wine;
read good novels if you have the leisure and see good plays;
fall in love, if there is no reason why you should not fall in love;
but do not pore over influenza statistics."

Robertson Chardonnay

R45

R130

This is Barristers' "House" Chardonnay. Served at 3°, it is cold and welcome after a long day at the beach, bench, computer, counter, desk, stove...or wherever you practice your trade.

Kloovenberg Chardonnay

R55

R155

Farmed in the rich and productive soils of the Riebeeck-Kasteel valley. A place where they also grow world class rugby players.

Bon Courage Chardonnay

R165

Chardonnay is an absolutely fabulous wine but the alcohol produced by the chardonnay grape is far more potent than that produced using any other cultivar. So, if you want buck for your bang or bloom for your bling then blog away on a dottle of chard-don-hey!

Anura Chardonnay

R65

R175

Built on the back of an optometry business. It's not hard to see why, particularly after a bottle of Anura.

Hartenberg Chardonnay

R65

R180

Carl Schultz has been Cellar Master since 1993 and it shows! A wonderfully crafted un-wooded chardonnay – experience his experience in every sip.

De Wetshof Limestone Hill

R215

The American critic Robert Parker describes this wine as such: "The De Wetshof Estate Limestone Hill Chardonnay never sees oak, and offers impeccably pure, refreshing apple, peach and lemon fruit, a lovely leesy richness of texture, and a nutty, chalky, fruit-filled finish of imposing length. Understated and less tropical than some of the better un-oaked Chardonnays, this wine possesses far better balance and sheer drinkability – not to mention more finesse – than 99% of the world's Chardonnay I have experienced."

Lightly Wooded

Fat Bastard Chardonnay

R210

When "The Big Guy" needs to be entertained, such as, just before increase time, this is the one.

Tierhoek Chardonnay

R80

R230

The farm is situated at 760 m above sea level, in the peaks of the Piekenierskloof near Citrusdal. A more famous pass, with an interesting history, wonderful people and great wines, you won't find anywhere else.

Glen Carlou Chardonnay

R320

This tastes like a Chardonnay should – rich, expansive, buttery and indulgent.

"The day he moved out was terrible - That evening she went through hell.
His absence wasn't a problem - But the corkscrew had gone as well."

Crisp, clean, and pink in the bottle; from a famous family of fine Vintners. Who are they?

Pierre Jordan Tranquille

R150

From the makers of Haute Cabrière - if you prefer something not quite dry and not quite sweet -you'll always find peace in a glass or two. It is after all "A still or quiet" Pierre Jordan, with a single fermentation, unlike big sister, the MCC Brut that we have on the list.

Haute Cabrière

R210

The benchmark and original chard-pinot blend. When in doubt, stick with what you know!

Rosés - Dry

Boschendal - The Rose Garden

Far too good to buy just a glass

R140

Boschendal has one of the oldest collections of Cape roses in the country. This soft gentle rosé has a hint of the sweet fragrance of the most delicate of delicate, pink roses. Delicious.

De Grendel Rosé

R65

R175

Pinotage and Cabernet gives this rosé peachy cheeks, with the faintest blush; bringing back thoughts of yesterdays, long gone by.

Vrede en Lust Jess Rosé

R195

Vinified and dried by the sun with a delicate feminine touch.

Delaire Graff Cabernet Franc Rosé

R240

A Pink diamond! Well worth the price.

Boschendal Blanc de Noir

R50

R140

Boschendal Blanc de Noir is the original "white from the red", which has been around forever...when did you first discover Boschendal?

D'Aria Blush

R60

R170

We found this, late on a Wednesday, in Mouille Point. It's still a personal favourite and so consistently good. A refuge from the noise of our time.

Delheim Pinotage Rosé

R195

Delheim (remember Spazendreck?), has delivered such value to South African Wine Lovers for such a long time and shows no signs of slowing down.

All you need is love and a little Rosé.

The End of the Beginning

Beyond this door lies a treasure of red wines.

Fear not, enter and engage the Door Keeper as you pass.

Did you know?

Each bottle of wine contains about 1,5 kg of grapes.
One vine produces between 24 and 36 glasses of wine.
A ton of grapes makes about 720 bottles of wine.
One barrel of wine equals 1 800 glasses of wine.

In 2020 there were 92 000 hectares of vines in SA.
55.4% white cultivars (18.6% chenin)
44.6% red cultivars (10.8% cab sav)
In 2020 SA produced 890 million litres of wines of which 35.4% (318 million) was exported.
Sadly, the number of primary grape producers declined from 4 360 in 2005 to 2 693 in 2020.

The Wolftrap Red

R50

R130

A blend of Syrah, Mourvèdre and Viognier. A great wine in which to confide matters of the heart. Safer than confiding in Tinder or some of the down to earth gentlemen of the bar.

Diemersdal Matys Red

R145

The label says it all "Create your future, be original, respect your past, take risks, live free, love the planet and celebrate life..." and on Sundays, dance as if no one is watching you.

Saxenburg Guineafowl

R60

R165

Each time we redo our wine list we discover a new wine that really surprises us. This little red blend did just that. We had too many red blends on the list already, but just had to find space for this one.

Boschendal Lanoy

R60

R170

Lanoy has been produced on Boschendal for ages and ages. I bought my first bottle in 1979. The label was sadly changed a few years ago. A pity as the Cab/Merlot blend still tastes the same as it did in '79, just as the homestead at Boschendal still looks the same.

Sophie Le Rouge

R65

R180

Iona has this wonderful red blend which complements the Sophie Te'Blanche. Couldn't have one without the other, could we?

Groote Post The Old Man's Red

R70

R190

This generous, good value wine is made from noble cultivars and perfectly sums up the adage: There are four things that are important in life - old books, old friends and old wine... The fourth will come to me after another glass of the Old Man's Red!

Thelema Mountain Red

R200

This wine is a fresh and exciting blend of Petit Verdot, Merlot, Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache and Cabernet Franc. Something for everyone, and a bit more too.

Hartenberg Cabernet Sauvignon/Shiraz

R80

R225

The perfect foil for a tender Barristers' Fillet. Hartenberg have been producing great wines since 1692. This wine reflects their understanding of nature and attention to detail.

La Motte Millennium

R225

The Millennium has produced a vintage, every year, since 2001. It would be fun to collect a bottle from each year and open them all in 2101... what a legacy! Anton Rupert knew a thing or two, when he bought the farm in 1970 and registered the Millennium name in 1988!

Buitenverwagting Meifort

R285

A classic Bordeaux blend of Cab Sav, Merlot & Cab Franc, with a little Malbec & Petite Verdat for good measure. Dripping with serious contemplation and determined resolutions.

Rupert & Rothchild Classique

R390

The aristocracy of wines and the closest you will get to a 2009 Château Mouton Rothchild.

Darling Cellars Reserve Six Tonner Merlot

R165

Swartland winery at its best. Bush vines that deliver a scant six tons of grape per hectare with concentrated flavours and typical merlot smoothness. One of the most drinkable wines on the list and a scenic drive from Duckett's Orchid Nursery.

Spier Signature Merlot

R65

R180

More than just the whole Spier thing, that you drive past on the way to Stellenbosch.

This is a wonderful Merlot that truly tastes of blackcurrants and really is velvety smooth on the palate.

Villiera Merlot

R210

A "Johnnie-come-lately". The list was done when this arrived...did I feel sorry for the wine, or did it taste so good I just had to make space on the list? Judge for yourself.

Kloovenburg Merlot

R240

This wine is produced in the "Swartland" which means, 'black country' and which is named after the indigenous renosterbos, which turns a dark colour at a certain time of the year. The renosterbos, was the favourite food of the rhino's that roamed the Cape in the 1700s.

I always associate the Swartland with wheat fields, fat sheep and wonderful merlots.

De Grendel Merlot

R345

Founded by the first baronet Sir David Graaff (1859 – 1932), De Grendel overlooks Table Bay and is distinguished by a cool growing climate, resulting in a distinctive and expressive style. Certainly, the aristocrat of the Cape Merlots. Tread lightly. 14.0% is not to be taken lying down.

Pinot Noir

Haute Cabrière Unwooded

R80

R225

Best drunk chilled, on the deck during lunch or even after; particularly when everyone else is back at work!

Haute Cabrière Reserve

R450

Franschhoek is one of the most sublime places on earth. In this bottle of wine you will find great beauty and respect for working with nature. A gentle but mighty wine.

And, as the Cock crew, those who stood before

Somehow Pinotage used to go with herringbone tweed, briar pipes and obscure books on architecture. Now it goes with anything; provided you have the tang of a sharp cheese, a leaf of rocket or a hint of smoky pâté on your plate.

Beyerskloof Pinotage

R70 R200

A fascinating story of the development of South Africa's unique wine cultivar – the mighty Pinotage...and Beyerskloof was there all the way...

Warwick First Lady Pinotage

R75 R210

The First Lady Pinotage is a new addition to the range with the first release in 2020. The Pinotage story on <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pinotage> is worth a read.

Diemersdal Pinotage

R250

Diemersdal Pinotage is oh so popular, we simply could not imagine a red wine list without it!

Diemersfontein Pinotage

R270

This is the one! The original coffee/chocolate Pinotage now in its seventeenth vintage. It befriends – It covets – It seduces.

When the Wine is in; the Wit is out!

Cabernet Sauvignon

Robertson Cabernet Sauvignon

R60 R160

Ever popular and always available at Barristers. What better way to unwind, after a cold day at the office and then a hard winter's eve drive home. Thank goodness your car knows its own way here. (ps. in summer you may add one lump of clear ice)

Spier Signature Cabernet Sauvignon

R180

I do like Spier's Growing for Good and Treepreneurs initiative, a good wine & worthwhile cause.

Warwick "First Lady" Cabernet Sauvignon

R75 R220

This elegant wine is crafted in a sophisticated style and the "First Lady" is a tribute to Norma Ratcliff – a pioneer in the South African Wine Industry.

Bon Courage Cabernet Sauvignon

R85 R240

The perfect foil for our Beef Burgundy. Enough said.

Rietvallei Estate Cabernet Sauvignon

R260

Dark and intensely full of black fruit flavours. Well priced, wholesome and promotes lofty ideas and develops moral courage. A wine that enriches the world and takes nothing for itself.

Bulls Eye Post House Cabernet Sauvignon

R360

This a BIG cab in every way. Rich, full bodied full of red fruit and berries. Oh so good! Not a wine to be messed with at 14.7% ABV.

First Sighting Shiraz

R70 R205

There's not a great deal at Elim, except for wind, sea, sand and scrub. Tucked away, in all of this, is the Strandveld Estate, (Translated: "Strand = Beach, Veldt = a flat area covered in grass or low scrub) an apt name for the area. Being a Shiraz, it brings this all together in a wine full of the smells and flavours of the Strandveld.

Hartenberg Doorkeeper Shiraz

R75 R220

The keeper of the door. Cross this threshold first and only then can you understand Hartenberg.

Bon Courage Pepper Tree

R250

Almost every Karroo farm has a Pepper tree at the homestead. Usually, visitors park underneath when they visit on Sundays. As children we'd eat the pepper corns and dream of spice ships rounding the cape. A glass of this shiraz will take you to those exotic places you'd like to visit, but perhaps should not, in these times.

Delaire Graff Shiraz

R295

This juicy, ripe and approachable Shiraz with its ruby colour and purple tints has a spicy white pepper undertone and dark red fruit aromas. Is there a hint of crushed diamonds somewhere?

Constitution Road Shiraz

R450

In 2004 Robertson Winery released a very special Shiraz to commemorate ten years of democracy in South Africa under the new constitution. The wine has a radiant deep purple colour. Rich aromas of plum, and black berries envelopes warm spice aromas and a hint of dark chocolate. Pair it with a joyous gathering of family and friends as you celebrate abundance.

De Grendel Shiraz

R395

True to the heritage of the Graaff family farm, De Grendel lies on the south-western slopes of Tygerberg and enjoys spectacular views of the Mother City. This Shiraz captures the exquisite taste and aromas of cosmopolitan Cape Town and its mix of east and west.

Hartenberg Shiraz

R425

The wine that started my collection, back in the days. It cost me R7.21 in 1979 and I still enjoy sharing a bottle of Hartenberg Shiraz with good friends; drinkable at all times.

Wine is the answer. I just don't remember the question.

Draught Beers on Tap

- Amstel - What the Chamber of Seventeen were drinking, when they named what is now the Liesbeek, the Amstel River.
- Black Label - The beer that built the nation and is still South Africa's biggest selling beer.
- Castle Draught - The South African beer that put us on the map for the right reasons. Thanks to Charles!
- Castle Lite - Tastes just like the advertising agency says it should, but only if you drink it when its ice cold!
- Craven Lager - Zero carbohydrates, but full of flavour without adding to the beer belly.
- CBC Amber Weiss - The best Weiss beer on the market - by far! Brewed in Stellenbosch. Consumed everywhere.
- Devils Peak First Light - On Devil's Peak, 1st light always turns to warm sunshine. So does this beer.
- Devils Peak Lager - Typical lager, with a bitterness to refresh the palate and slake the deepest thirst.
- Devils Peak Lite - Low in total energy, but still flavorsome. It's what you expect from a craft beer.
- Guinness - The original was brewed in Dublin. Now brewed in South Africa! 119 second pour guarantee the fine bubbles.
- Heineken - Hipster, cosmopolitan, a great international beer. Still family owned and family run.
- Jack Black Lager - The Main Man! The beer that got the craft revolution in Cape Town firmly underway.
- Jack Black Butcher's Block Pale Ale - Fountains of flavour that tickle the inside of your ears.
- Newlands - Jacobs Pale Ale - Barristers can arrange a free tour of the Newlands Spring Brewery. Just ask!
- Newlands - Passionate Blond - Not what you're thinking! This blond beer is named after Mr. Olsson.
- Newlands - Tribute Lager - Made from the best Table Mountain spring water. Right here at its source.
- Stella Artois - It is the optimum premium pilsner with its full flavour and clean crisp taste.
- Windhoek - The Reinheitsgebot beer. In reality, a beer drunk initially in protest, now, because it's very good.
