CHAMPAGNES & SPARKLING WINES

Champagnes - Prosecco

750 ml

Moët & Chandon n.v.

R1000

The classic bubbly that everyone aspires to, but sadly, most of us can only afford to stand and stare, as it sits on the shelf waiting for the big occasion when someone else gets to celebrate.

Methode Cap Classique (MCC)

Boschendal Brut NV 175 ml glass or 750 ml bottle

R70 R315

Boschendal Brut Rosé NV 750 ml bottle

R70 R315

We've walked a long road together...from 1983 when I bought a magnum of Boschendal MCC to celebrate the birth of our first born. We opened it in 2005. It hadn't travelled well – poor thing but did bring back happy memories. This Christmas past we tried a fresh magnum and fell in love again with this magnificent bubbly...and here it is for all to enjoy. Ad multos annos!

Pierre Jourdan Brut

375 ml / 750 ml

R165 R325

The lime characteristics of the Chardonnay predominate but are well supported by the Pinot Noir. This MCC is crisp, stimulating and rewarding on the palate. It is produced by Haute Cabrière who launched the very first chardonnay/pinot blended MCC.

See if you can find the quieter sister on the list.

Villiera Tradition Brut

375 ml / 750 ml

R215 R335

If you'd like to be different, then this is the one for you. "Made with solar in most stages of production." Presumably this starts in the vineyard in about September of each year? As with any bubbly, do take care as they have a habit of sneaking up on one...

Graham Beck Brut Rosé

R355

Flirtatious and fun. This wine has a beautiful salmon-pink colour with strawberry-fruit flavours. A favourite for special those occasions; to be remembered and cherished between two people.

Steenberg 1682 Chardonnay

R395

The Brut 1682 yields a consistent flavour of fresh, Granny Smith apples with overtones of freshly baked biscuits rounded by a creamy, yet fresh mouth feel. Made exclusively from chardonnay, it can, if taken in excess, bring on Joanna Lumley behavioural patterns, but remains, always, absolutely fabulous.

Sparkling & Non-Alcoholic Wines

Robertson Sparkling Sweet or Brut – Rose or White

R175

The classic bubbly that is produced at every family event, especially Christenings. Drunk, in vast amounts, when given even the faintest hint of anything mildly worth turning into a celebration.

Robertson Sparkling White Non-Alcoholic

R155

This semi-sweet, alcohol-free sparkling grape juice is full of delicate fruit and bubbles; and without the headache.

White Wines

White Blends

250 ml 750 ml

Robertson Beaukett

R45 R130

Full of sweet ripe grapes, from the Robertson Valley. If you like chocolates, then this is for you.

Saxenburg Granite White Blend

R50 R135

Seldom have I enjoyed a wine which is so aptly named. Truly a crisp granite blend which is deliciously crisp and rewarding to drink, with a wonderful after taste that tingles the tongue and tempts a return to the cup. Surely the best value wine on this list.

Buitenverwaching - Buiten Blanc

R65 R170

The perennial favourite; a classic Cape Town white wine. Made on our doorstep, from grapes sourced throughout the Western Cape. Best consumed on the lawn at Buitenverwaching, or Barristers, if closer to home.

Villiera Down to Earth (v)

R70 R185

A mix of sauvignon blanc and semillon. It is really honest, consistent, reliable and affordable. Down to earth, just like the two Regulars who helped me with the tasting. After a good few too many tastes, we all approved! Now its down to you,

Afrikaans

R245

Ja, hierdie is 'n besondere wyn in 'n onwaarskynlike plek. Maar dis soos hulle sê: goeie wyn het nie 'n krans nodig nie.

“Let your boat of life be light, packed with only what you need – a homely home and simple pleasures, one or two friends, worth the name,
someone to love and someone to love you,
a cat, a dog, and a pipe or two,
enough to eat and enough to wear,
and a little more than enough to drink.
for thirst is a dangerous thing.”

Jerome K. Jerome

“It was my Uncle George who discovered that alcohol was a food well in advance of modern medical thought.”

Robertson Sauvignon Blanc

R45

R135

Our House Wine, which is chosen to be consumed by the glass with special friends, who are able to listen to the same stories day in and day out. Useful when you need to review a dreary day's work.

Porcupine Ridge Sauvignon Blanc

R145

From Boekenhoutdkloof. This wine will bring back memories of finding porcupine quills in the veldt. There's probably one still stuck in your sock draw or some other place where you keep special memories.

Bon Courage Gooseberry Bush

R55

R160

A gentle sauvignon blanc that pleases the palate, without impairing one's hearing, or the dexterity of the tongue.

Diemersdal Sauvignon Blanc

R70

R195

With literally hundreds of sauvignon blancs to choose from, Diemersdal is a firm favourite in Newlands. We visited the farm with a group of friends and apart from the sheep in the meadow next to the tasting room wanting to talk to one of our Regulars, a good day that was! Diemersdal keeps well, sells well, drinks well and after a glass all is well. Oh well!

Diemersdal (Sauvignon Blanc 97% ~ Cabernet Sauvignon 3%)

R70

R195

The birth of Cabernet Sauvignon is thought to have occurred in 17th century France. It came about, it appears, by accident, when Cabernet Franc met Sauvignon Blanc. What a happy accident that turned out to be! Diemersdal have brought the parent and step child together with a combination of 97% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% fresh Cabernet Sauvignon.

First Sighting Sauvignon Blanc

R70

R200

The day I visited Elim, it was blustery, with skies full of heavy cloud and patches of bright sun. I'm sure the wind always blows in Elim. It makes one wonder what oceans it has passed over on its way to the southern tip of Africa and how many ancient mariners it has blown off course. You are in a safe harbour now.

Sophie Te'Blanche

R75

R220

Dear old Sophie has returned after a well deserve break. Refreshed after lock-down and as popular as ever now and then. A great wine that delivers great value...enjoy!

Reyneke Organic (v)

R225

A blend of organically grown and produced sauvignon blanc and semillon. Especially for those who want an organic wine from one of the pioneers in the field.

De Grendel Sauvignon Blanc

R85

R235

De Grendel is one of my all-time favourite estates and having become particularly well acquainted with their wonderful rosé, I wanted to give the sauvignon blanc a chance as well. When you peer down at Cape Town from the Tygerberg, oh what a wonderful sight.

Steenberg

R295

The Cape's first farm, established in 1682 and still producing fine sauvignon blanc on the stone mountain. The logo recalls the swans, which turned out to be geese. A great wine very far from being an ugly duckling.

Ataraxia Sauvignon Blanc

R310

Greek for "a serene state of mind, free from worry and preoccupation". I get nervous trying to pronounce ataraxia, but then again, it's normally only when I want to order the second bottle.

White Wines

Chenin Blancs

250 ml 750 ml

Robertson Chenin

R45 R130

It is spelt with a 'C' but pronounced with a 'Shh'. Perhaps it has to do with the second glass?

Saxenburg Guinea Fowl

R55 R155

We have guinea fowl in our garden and each spring they wonder around on the lawn with a clutch of keets. Try saying that after a glass of the old speckled hen!

The Noisy Grape

R170

98% chenin with 2% shiraz. Very easy on the pallet but deafeningly delicious.

Kleine Zalze Chenin Cellar Selection

R65 R175

A mild and simple wine, so easy to drink; after a long day, when you seem to have used up your allotted allocation of decisions and can't decide what to drink today, go with Kleine Zalze. It never disappoints.

Secateurs

R70 R200

A most delicious wine...but then I do have a sweet tooth and have always been a big fan of Chenin Blanc. A wine that does go with old friends, old jokes and simple honest food.

Marras Piekenierskloof

R215

As South African as it gets... red vellies, Mrs Ball's, Wilson's Toffees, Ouma Rusks and All Gold captured in a drop of sunlight.

'Marras' Lamprecht says this of the Piekenierskloof area; "...a grape (if it could talk) would tell you that this is the spot that produces tough vines and top-class wines." He is correct!

It really is too good to just have a glass and much more fun to share with a good friend.

Waterford Pecan Stream

R225

Soft on the pallet but let me not interrupt... please do sip on....

Great Heart

R260

Produced from bush vines in the Swartland from vines up to forty years old and made by hands who for generations have worked the soils of South Africa's wine lands.

"Eat good dinners and drink good wine;
read good novels if you have the leisure and see good plays;
fall in love, if there is no reason why you should not fall in love;
but do not pore over influenza statistics."

Jerome K. Jerome (written in 1896 – how true today?)

the Roman Empire stopped where wine could no longer be made."

Robertson Chardonnay

R50 R140

This is Barristers' "House" Chardonnay. Served at 3°, it is cold and welcome after a long day at the beach, bench, computer, counter, desk, stove...or wherever you practice your trade.

Bon Courage Chardonnay

R60 R165

Chardonnay is an absolutely fabulous wine but the alcohol produced by the chardonnay grape is far more potent than that produced using any other cultivar. So, if you want buck for your bang or bloom for your bling then blog away on a dottle of chard-don-hey!

Anura Chardonnay

R70 R190

Built on the back of an optometry business. It's not hard to see why, particularly after a bottle of Anura.

Diemersdal Chardonnay

R70 R195

Situated on the outskirts of Durbanville, Diemersdal has been producing wines for more than 300 years. The current family of owners, bought the farm in 1885 with six generations of Louw's having made wine on the farm. Diemersdal is Barristers bestselling wine – taste and you will understand why we live by the credo of “..old books, old wine and old friends...”

De Wetshof Limestone Hill

R225

The American critic Robert Parker describes this wine as such: “The De Wetshof Estate Limestone Hill Chardonnay never sees oak, and offers impeccably pure, refreshing apple, peach and lemon fruit, a lovely leesy richness of texture, and a nutty, chalky, fruit-filled finish of imposing length. Understated and less tropical than some of the better un-oaked Chardonnays, this wine possesses far better balance and sheer drinkability – not to mention more finesse – than 99% of the world's Chardonnay I have experienced.”

Wooded

The Ladybird – Organic (v)

R215

Organically grown after a long conversion of the farm which started at the beginning of this century. Ladybirds are the natural enemies of the mealybug, one of the biggest pest problems threatening vineyards in South Africa and as no pesticides are used, the farm has its own insectaria to ensure a steady supply of ladybirds eat the bugs and allow the vines to produce the grape which produces the Ladybird in the glass in front of you.

Tierhoek Chardonnay

R95 R260

The farm is situated at 760 m above sea level, in the peaks of the Piekenierskloof near Citrusdal. A more famous pass, with an interesting history, wonderful people and great wines, you won't find anywhere else.

Glen Carlou Chardonnay

R350

This tastes like a Chardonnay should – rich, expansive, buttery and indulgent.

His absence wasn't a problem - But the corkscrew had gone as well.”

Pierre Jourdan Tranquille

R60

R165

From the makers of Haute Cabrière - if you prefer something not quite dry and not quite sweet -you'll always find peace in a glass or two. It is after all "A still or quiet" Pierre Jordan, with a single fermentation, unlike big sister, the MCC Brut that we have on the list. Low in residual sugar and alcohol - 11.5%.

Haute Cabrière

R230

The benchmark and original chard-pinot blend. When in doubt, stick with what you know!

Rosés - Dry

Boschendal - The Rose Garden

R60

R160

Boschendal has one of the oldest collections of Cape roses in the country. This soft gentle rosé has a hint of the sweet fragrance of the most delicate of delicate, pink roses.

Bon Courage Lady of the House Pinotage Rosé

R60

R165

This lady packs quite a punch. At 14.43% alcohol and hints of strawberries and roses, you might find yourself radiating a delightfully pink glow and sharing your sense of humour to all and sundry.

De Grendel Rosé

R65

R190

Pinotage and Cabernet Sauvignon give these rosé peachy cheeks, with the faintest blush; bringing back forgotten thoughts of yesterdays, long gone by.

Sophie le Rosé

R70

R195

The lady with the red hair of the label is a warning of what lies inside this dry explosive rose. That is what Sophie is.

Vrede en Lust Jess Rosé

R210

Vinified and dried by the sun with a delicate feminine touch. A favourite amongst our private equity types.

Steenberg Ruby Rosé

R215

Syrah - Shiraz in our langue - grapes pressed in a champagne cycle to extract a pale and delicate juice, which grows into a mighty fine rose after a cool fermentation of 21 days. Amazing how it goes down so quickly once opened.

Delaire Graff Cabernet Franc Rosé

R275

A pink diamond! Well worth the price.

Boschendal Blanc de Noir

R60

Boschendal Blanc de Noir is the original "white from the red", which has been around forever...when did you first discover Boschendal?

D'Aria Blush

R65

R185

We found this, late on a Wednesday, in Mouille Point. It's still a personal favourite and so consistently good. A refuge from the noise of our time.

All you need is love and a little Rosé.

The End of the Beginning

Beyond this door lies a treasure of red wines.

Fear not, enter and engage the Door Keeper as you pass.

Did you know?

Each bottle of wine contains about 1,5 kg of grapes.
One vine produces between 24 and 36 glasses of wine.
A ton of grapes makes about 720 bottles of wine.
One barrel of wine equals 1 800 glasses of wine.

In 2020 there were 92 000 hectares of vines in SA.

55.4% white cultivars (18.6% chenin)

44.6% red cultivars (10.8% cab sav)

In 2021 SA produced 1 133.3 million litres of wines of which 388 million litres were exported in 2021.

19 million glasses of South African wine are enjoyed world-wide every day.

Boschendal Lanoy

Boschendal Lanoy

R70

R190

Lanoy has been produced on Boschendal for ages and ages. I bought my first bottle in 1979. The label was sadly changed a few years ago. A pity as the Cab/Merlot blend still tastes the same as it did in '79, just as the homestead at Boschendal still looks the same. I'm not taking it personally, but am bitterly disappointed.

Sophie Le Rouge

R75

R210

Iona has this wonderful red blend which complements the Sophie Te'Blanche. Couldn't have one without the other, could we? But where did that leave the red head?

Thelema Mountain Red

R215

This wine is a fresh blend of Petit Verdot, Merlot, Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache and Cabernet Franc. All that was left out was the Fox terrier, Jack Russel, Dachshund and the touch of Basset Hound.

Afrikaans

R245

""Goei morre Prokureur—geef my tog bitjie raad? Myn is 'n ding gebeur, hier buite op die straat.

Daar kom 'n slegte hond, net vlak hier voor jou deur, En byt myn in dei been; myn broek is glad verskeur

A great Afrikaans poem I learnt in standard 3. It has nothing to do with this great wine, but everything to do with being a South African.

La Motte Millennium

R245

The Millennium has produced a vintage, every year, since 2001. It would be fun to collect a bottle from each year and open them all in 2101... what a legacy! Anton Rupert knew a thing or two, when he bought the farm in 1970 and registered the Millennium name in 1988!

Hartenberg Cabernet Sauvignon/Shiraz

R90

R245

The perfect foil for a tender Barristers' Fillet. Hartenberg have been producing great wines since 1692. This wine reflects their understanding of nature and attention to detail.

The Ladybird – Organic (v)

R250

Organically grown and organically made. So, all in all quite organic!

Boschendal Nicolas

R345

Like a brass band – there are all the regular reds. When they play together they remind one of Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance March. The tuba, the trombone and above all the lower C's the cornet.

Rupert & Rothchild Classique

There's not a great deal at Elim, except for wind, sea, sand and scrub. Tucked away, in all of this, is the Strandveld Estate, (Translated: "Strand = Beach, Veldt = a flat area covered in grass or low scrub) an apt name for the area. Being a Shiraz, it brings this all together in a wine full of the smells and flavours of the Strandveld.

Hartenberg Doorkeeper Shiraz

R90

R245

The keeper of the door. Cross this threshold first and only then can you understand Hartenberg. Although a quick visit to the estate will give you a far better understanding that we can.

Bon Courage Pepper Tree

R95

R260

Almost every Karroo farm has a Pepper tree at the homestead. Usually, visitors park underneath when they visit on Sundays. As children we'd eat the pepper corns and dream of spice ships rounding the cape. A glass of this shiraz will take you to those exotic places you'd like to visit, but perhaps should not, in these times.

Delaire Graff Shiraz

R345

This juicy, ripe and approachable Shiraz with its ruby colour and purple tints has a spicy white pepper undertone and dark red fruit aromas. Is there a hint of crushed diamonds somewhere?

De Grendel Shiraz

R395

True to the heritage of the Graaff family farm, De Grendel lies on the south-western slopes of Tygerberg and enjoys spectacular views of the Mother City. This Shiraz captures the exquisite taste and aromas of cosmopolitan Cape Town and its mix of east and west.

Hartenberg Shiraz

R455

The wine that started my collection, back in the days. It cost me R7.21 (R18.05 in restaurant prices) in 1979 and I still enjoy sharing a bottle of Hartenberg Shiraz with good friends; drinkable at all times. Based on the value of the ZAR to the US$ over that time (1979: 0.84 to 2023:18.59) the price should be R399.46.

Constitution Road Shiraz

R465

In 2004 Robertson Winery released a very special Shiraz to commemorate ten years of democracy in South Africa under the new constitution. The wine has a radiant deep purple colour. Rich aromas of plum, and black berries envelopes warm spice aromas and a hint of dark chocolate. Pair it with a joyous gathering of family and friends as you celebrate abundance.

A "Johnnie-come-lately". The list was done when this arrived...did I feel sorry for the wine, or did it taste so good I just had to make space on the list? Judge for yourself.

De Grendel Merlot

R350

Founded by the first baronet Sir David Graaff (1859 – 1932), De Grendel overlooks Table Bay and is distinguished by a cool growing climate, resulting in a distinctive and expressive style. Certainly, the aristocrat of the Cape Merlots. Tread lightly. 14.0% is not to be taken lying down.

Draught Beers on Tap

Amstel - What the Chamber of Seventeen were drinking, when they named what is now the Liesbeek, the Amstel River.

Black Label - The beer that built the nation and is still South Africa's biggest selling beer.

Castle Draught - The South African beer that put us on the map for the right reasons. Thanks to Charles!

Castle Lite - Tastes just like the advertising agency says it should, but only if you drink it when its ice cold!

CBC Amber Weiss - The best Weiss beer on the market – by far! Brewed in Stellenbosch. Consumed everywhere.

Devils Peak First Light - On Devil's Peak, 1st light always turns to warm sunshine. So does this beer.

Devils Peak Lager - Typical lager, with a bitterness to refresh the palate and slake the deepest thirst.

Devils Peak Lite - Low in total energy, but still flavorsome. It's what you expect from a craft beer.

Guinness -The original was brewed in Dublin. Now brewed in South Africa! Now brewed in Dublin again!

Heineken - Hipster, cosmopolitan, a great international beer. Family owned and family run, apart from Bill Gates's 3.5%

Jack Black Lager - The Main Man! The beer that got the craft revolution in Cape Town firmly underway.

Jack Black Butcher's Block Pale Ale - Fountains of flavour that tickle the inside of your ears.

Newlands – Mountain Weiss - A proper Weiss beer.... Cloudy and smelly! Just as it should be.

Newlands - Jacobs Pale Ale - As close as you can get to a Yuengling this side of the Atlantic!

Newlands - Passionate Blond - Not what you're thinking! This blond beer is named after Mr. Olsson.

Newlands - Tribute Lager - Made from the best Table Mountain spring water. Right here at its source.

Stella Artois - It is the optimum premium pilsner with its full flavour and clean crisp taste.

Windhoek - The Reinheitsgebot beer. In reality, a beer drunk initially in protest, now, because it's very good.
